SUPER JUNKOID

After Junko saved a small snake, the creature never left her mind.

Night after night, the serpent coiled through Junko's dreams, rewarding her mercy with glittering jewels and other earthly treasures.

MAP

THE OUTSKIRTS

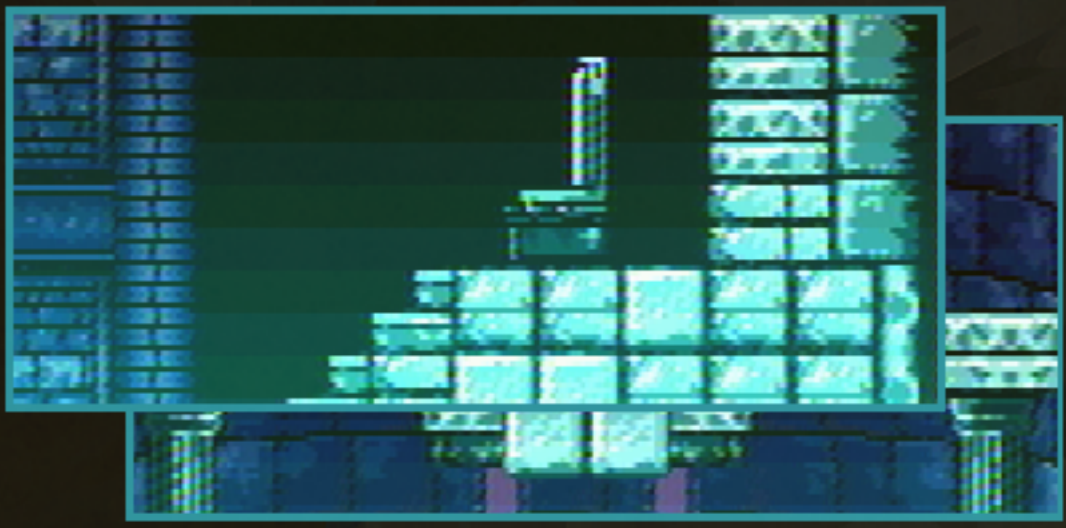

Outside the city, there is a nexus of towering steel girders that twist skyward. A place of rusted pipes and lakes of blood.

From the Outskirts, you can see the Ice Castle in the distance. Inside the caves, not too far from the surface, you'll find the entrance to the Blood Bethel.

The Gutter is connected directly to the Outskirts, and from there leads to both Deep Purple, and to one of the mouths of a terrible worm.

SUPER JUNKOID
ICE CASTLE

The castles, numerous in the sky, were all gifts by the serpent to his favorite Junko. A place where she could lord over her subjects and live as a queen.

This frigid tower is safer than most zones, but those who are not careful may find themselves impaled on the spikes that dot every corner and every crevice.

BLOOD BETHEL

The Bethel is a sacred place. Any Junko who wanders into it will be drained of fluids and tossed aside. The lucky ones will be stuffed into a ritual block as their final resting place. Given a long enough time frame, the entire world will drown in her blood.

Traversal in the Blood Bethel will be slow, and you will have to return to the surface periodically for air. Keep an eye out for the Sanguine Fin hidden here, and you'll be able to overcome any obstacle.

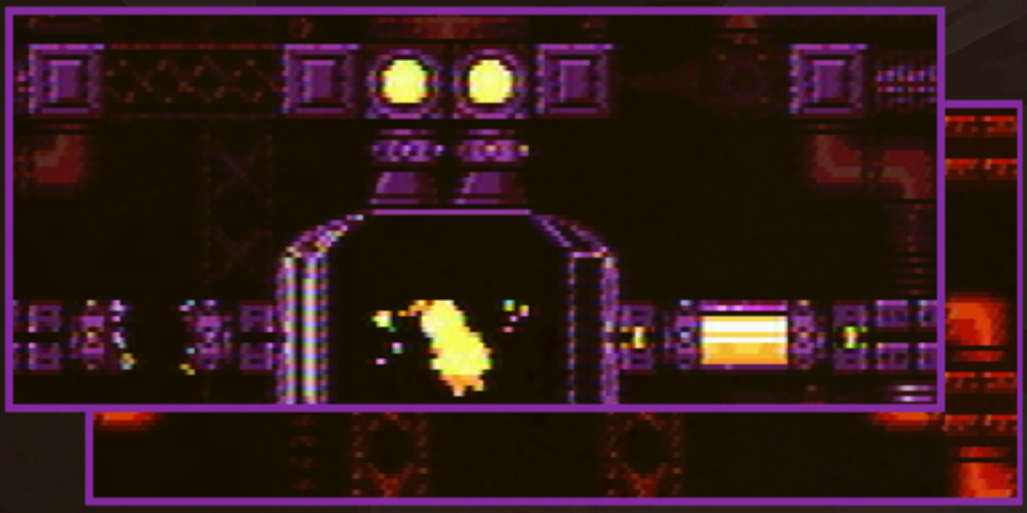

FALSE IDOL

This multi-headed beast has made the center of the world his home. There is little known about this creature, but it's pretty clear that he enjoys snacking on Junko.

If you wish to slay this worm, you must enter his mouth and kill it from the inside. Stab its heart until it is done.

DEEP PURPLE

Deep Purple is a labyrinth of machines and super-heated oils. The mechanical tentacles that cling to every surface seem to breathe life back into once lifeless viscera. It is a nauseously hot and humid place where only the strongest creatures call home.

Deep Purple connects to all other zones. The central elevator shaft connects to all surface areas, including the False Idol and Tohu Va-Vohu. The core shaft near the bottom connects to the home of the snake himself.

SUPER JUNKOID

TOHU VA-VOHU

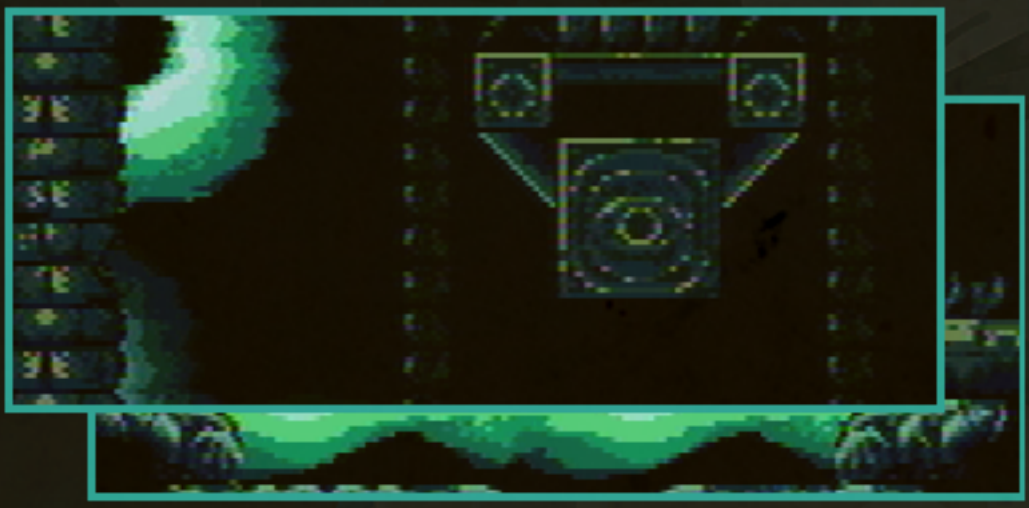

In a realm that has seemingly always existed, within endless ash and dead trees, you will find the origin of the birds who help you navigate the dream.

The shifting walls will deal serious mental damage unless you have the Purple Locket around your neck.

This truly is a terrible place.

SHEOL

There is no life here, only the brainless husks of once beloved subjects of the great serpent. The very blocks that make up this place are filled with what remains of his favorite ones.

This zone is full of "Junkoids", horrible creatures that will grasp onto you and try to steal your life. If they attach to you, just give them a single Rat Burst and they'll be stunned. To defeat them, simply freeze them and pelt them with baseballs or swords.

The only way to enter this zone is to defeat the four greater Junkos found in Blood Bethel, Ice Castle, False Idol and Tohu Va-Vohu.

SUPER JUNKOID

IMMODEST JUNKO

This chilly lass can only be hurt with charged shots, baseballs or swords. Well placed attacks will lower her guard, allowing you to strike!
